REPORT

Every year on 24th September, National Service Scheme day is celebrated. On 24th September 1969, the then union education minister Shri.V.K.R.V. Rao launched the NSS at 37 universities in several states of India. NSS unit of MGM Dental College & Hospital, Navi Mumbai organised various event to celebrate 'NSS Day'.

The event began with the lamp lightening ceremony at the hands of Dr. Piyush Saxena, Senior Vice President, Reliance Industries which was followed by NSS song. A mime act was performed by the volunteers showing the achievements of our nation and the sacrifices made by its people to achieve those. It was followed by the guest lecture of Dr. Piyush Saxena about 'Gender sensitivity and problems of transgender.' It was followed by dance performances by volunteers reflecting cultural diversity in India.
