

ABOUT LIBRARY

The Trust of Mahatma Gandhi Mission, popularly known as MGM, was established on 20th December 1982 in Nanded, Maharashtra, with a vision to provide qualitative education by applying innovative and dynamic pedagogical techniques. Since its inception, the Trust has focused on providing health care services, school education and higher education with dedication and commitment.

The College has developed with modern library interior touch, with the intention of creating pleasant ambiance for library atmosphere. Central Library is well equipped with a large number of books and various national and international journals. Presently the library has 6186 number of text and reference books with bar-coded on various subjects and is a subscriber to 35 Journals International & 15 National Journals.

The central library is divided on two floors 6th & 7th floor. The Library services available on the sixth floor of the Library: Library collection Stacks Area, Circulating Collection (Open Stacks), Technical Processing section, Reference & Staff Reading Section, Periodical section Reprographic section, Book Bank Service.

The seventh floor of the Library: UG reading hall & separate P.G reading rooms, Audio-Visual Room its contains ten computers. E-Library had ten workstations to access the digital web resources of central library.

The CCTV surveillance system covers both 6th & 7th floors of central library. It safe guards the library invaluable collection in possession.